

HAVE A CRIMINAL RECORD IN SOUTH CAROLINA? YOU CAN STILL VOTE IF YOU MEET CERTAIN CRITERIA!

- If you have a misdemeanor conviction and you're out of jail for that conviction, YOU CAN VOTE!
- If you have a felony conviction and you've completed your sentence, YOU CAN VOTE!
 - Completing your sentence means that you must be out of prison and off of parole, probation or community supervision.
 - If you simply owe fines and fees (are on administrative supervision), your right to vote SHOULD BE RESTORED. If you experience pushback from either the Department of Parole and Probation or Voter Registration on this issue, please contact us to assist: southcarolina@rootandrebound.org or (864) 272-0681.
- If you have a conviction for election fraud and you've completed your sentence, YOU CAN VOTE!
- If you are in county jail on pending charges and are not currently on parole or probation, YOU CAN VOTE!

IN ORDER TO VOTE AFTER YOU'VE BEEN TAKEN OFF THE VOTER ROLLS FOR A CONVICTION, YOU MUST REGISTER OR RE-REGISTER. REGISTRATION STEPS:

- For a felony conviction, you may need to contact the Department of Parole and Probation and request a letter that you have completed your term to take to Voter Registration.
- With a SC driver's license or state ID, you can register online at scvotes.gov.
- You can register in person at any County Voter Registration office and get a free ID there.
- DEADLINES TO REGISTER: 10/2/20 (in person); 10/4/20 (online or by fax); 10/5/20 (by mail—must be postmarked 10/5).
